Other family or household members may still get benefits if they are otherwise eligible. If you are applying only for emergency Medicaid because of your immigration status, you do not need to give us information about your SSN if you do not have one.

SSNs are used to verify your family's income and resources and to conduct computer matching with other agencies such as the Social Security Administration, Employment Security Division, Child Support Enforcement Programs and the Internal Revenue Service. It is also used to gather workforce information, investigations, recover overpaid benefits and to ensure duplicate benefits are not received.

If any of these persons do not want to give us information about his/her citizenship or immigration status, he/she will not be eligible for benefits. * Please make copies or request additional copies of this page for additional parents.

NON-CUSTODIAL PARENT (NCP) FORM

When applying for TANF and/or Medicaid assistance, the law requires you to cooperate with Child Support Enforcement (CSE) to establish paternity to get child support and/or medical support owed to you and/or any child(ren) that you are applying for. This may include genetic testing. If the test proves the person you named is not the father, you may be required to pay the cost of the test. You are also responsible for providing all available information requested by the CSE Program such as certified copies of divorce decrees and/or support orders, birth certificates and photographs of the absent parent.

The CSE Program locates absent parents and/or sources of income and assets, establishes and enforces financial and medical support, reviews and adjusts existing child support orders, and collects and distributes financial and medical support payments. If you are requesting medical assistance only, you may request in writing you only want medical support services.

The CSE Program has sole discretion in determining which legal remedies are used in pursuing support and cannot guarantee success. CSE may request assistance of another state, and thereby, be subject to the laws of that state. CSE does not provide services involving custody, visitation or unpaid medical bills. CSE may close your case when your case meets closure rules established by federal and state regulation.

The CSE Program represents the State of Nevada when providing services and no attorney-client privilege exists. CSE is authorized to endorse and cash payments made payable to you for support payments and may collect past-due support by intercepting an IRS tax refund or other federal payment. If a tax intercept occurs, the CSE Program has the authority to hold a joint tax refund for a period of six (6) months before distributing the funds. No interest is paid on the held funds. Funds collected from a tax intercept are applied first to pay off any past-due support assigned to the State of Nevada. A nonrefundable fee is deducted by the federal government of any tax or federal payment intercepted by the CSE Program.

Good cause for not cooperating in pursuing child support or paternity may be allowed. If you do not cooperate with CSE and good cause has not been determined, your household will be ineligible for TANF and you will be ineligible for Medicaid. Good cause for not cooperating will be considered if you request it in writing. Examples of good cause are as follows:

- The child was conceived as a result of rape or incest.
- Legal proceedings for adoption of the child are pending before a court.
- You are being assisted by a public or licensed private social service agency to decide whether to keep or relinquish the child for adoption (no longer than three (3) months).
- Your cooperation in establishing paternity or securing support will result in physical or emotional harm to yourself or the child(ren).

You must provide your case manager with verification within twenty (20) days after claiming good cause. You will receive written notification of the good cause decision. If you are found to have good cause for not cooperating, CSE will NOT attempt to establish paternity or collect child support.

YES, I wish to claim good cause. NO, I am not claiming good cause at this time.

You must report changes whenever a name change occurs; you have a new address or telephone number for home or work; you hire a private attorney or collection agency; another child support or paternity legal action is filed; you file for divorce; you receive support payments directly from the absent parent; you have a new address, telephone number, employment or health insurance for the absent parent; a child(ren) no longer lives with you; a child(ren) is still in high school after age 18; a child(ren) becomes disabled before age 18; a child(ren) comes to live with you or you birth another child; a child marries, is adopted, joins the armed forces or is declared an adult by court order.

You are responsible for repayment of support amounts received in error, including payments from an IRS tax refund, which are adjusted by the IRS. If you fail to enter into a repayment agreement with the CSE Program, the outstanding balance may be reported to a credit reporting agency and money collected on your behalf by the CSE Program may be withheld for repayment. Additionally, legal action may be initiated against you.

Electronic Benefits Transfer (EBT) – Any Food Stamp benefits that are not used in an EBT account for 365 days will be removed from the account and returned to Food and Nutrition Service (FNS) as required by federal regulations. Any unused benefits can be applied (credited) to an outstanding Food Stamp claim (overpayment) the household may have. If your TANF benefit is less than $10.00, you will receive Medicaid only and no cash payment.

The DWSS may mail information to you that may require you to respond by a certain date. If you are away from home, you are still responsible to respond by the required date. You may wish to make arrangements for your mail while you are away.

Work Requirements: If you are approved for TANF and/or Food Stamps, you may be required to cooperate with certain work requirements. Failure to comply with certain work requirements could disqualify you and/or other members of your household from participating in either program.

If you or any other household member voluntarily quits a job or reduces work hours without good cause, this may be considered failure to comply with work requirements for the Food Stamp Program. The disqualification period for failure to comply with work requirements is one month and until compliance for the first violation, three months and until compliance for the second violation, and six months and until compliance for the third violation.

Third Party Liability – If any of my household members receive Medicaid, I agree to assign all rights to any medical claims, medical support or other payments for medical care. I understand this is a condition of being eligible for Medicaid. I agree to cooperate with the Department of Health and Human Services in obtaining payments for medical care from any third party or person who may be liable for the medical services paid for by the Medicaid Program. I also understand I must inform the DWSS if any legal action is taken against anyone or if I receive any offer or settlement for the reimbursement of medical care and treatment that may be paid for by the Medicaid Program.

Parental Financial Responsibility for Medicaid Services Provided to Disabled Children – I understand as a parent of a disabled minor child who receives services under the Medicaid Program, I may be responsible to contribute to the support of my child by reimbursing the Department of Health and Human Services for services paid on behalf of my child(ren) pursuant to NR 125B.020 and NRS 422.310. I agree to cooperate with the Department of Human Resources in providing all information regarding income, resources and medical insurance, necessary to determine the amount of the reimbursement. If I fail to cooperate or provide the information requested, I am responsible for a monthly reimbursement payment in the amount of $1,900.

Important Child Support Information – By signing this application and by receiving TANF and/or Medicaid benefits, you agree to assign your child support rights to the Nevada State Division of Welfare and Supportive Services (DWSS). This is a condition of eligibility for your household's TANF benefits and your Medicaid benefits. If you are receiving TANF, any court ordered or stipulated child support paid directly to you is required by law to be surrendered right away to the DWSS or Child Support Enforcement Unit. By signing this application, you are authorizing the DWSS to transfer all or part of the support collected each month to pay back the TANF benefits your household received for the same month the child support was collected.

When applying for TANF and/or Medicaid assistance, the law requires you to cooperate with Child Support Enforcement to establish paternity to get child support and/or medical support owed to you and/or any child(ren) you are applying for. Good cause for not cooperating in pursuing child support or paternity may be allowed. If you do not cooperate with Child Support Enforcement and good cause to not cooperate has not been determined, your household will be ineligible for TANF and you will be ineligible for Medicaid.

If TANF and/or Medicaid assistance is terminated and child support is collected, any portion due to you will be made as a direct deposit into your bank account or by a Nevada Debit Card. A Nevada Debit Card will be issued to you unless you request payments by direct deposit. Visit our website: <http://www.welfare.state.nv.us/child.htm> for direct deposit information.

You are responsible for repayment of support amounts received in error, including support payments from an IRS tax refund which are adjusted by the IRS. If you fail to enter into a repayment agreement with the CSE program, money collected on your behalf by the CSE program may be withheld for repayment and the outstanding balance may be reported to a collection agency. Medicaid Estate Recovery Program – Medicaid recipients who are 55 years or older or inpatients of a medical facility may be responsible for repayment of Medicaid expenses paid for them. Recovery of these payments made from the Medicaid Program would be pursued from the estate of the recipient after their death or after the death of their surviving spouse. (See Form 6160-AF, Program Operation.)

Reviews and Investigations – By signing this application, you are authorizing the Department of Health and Human Services to make investigations concerning yourself and other members of your household as well as your child(ren)'s legal or natural parent(s) which may be necessary to determine eligibility for benefits you or your household receives or will receive under programs administered by the DWSS, including childcare assistance. Information provided to the DWSS may be verified or investigated by federal, state and local officials including Quality Control staff. If you do not cooperate in the review, your benefits may be denied or terminated. If you make false or misleading statements, misrepresent, conceal or withhold facts necessary for the DWSS to make an accurate determination on your benefits or alter any document, your benefits may be denied, terminated or reduced. You are responsible for repayment of all monies, services and benefits (including childcare assistance) you were not entitled to. Additionally, you may be disqualified from receiving benefits in the future and criminally prosecuted or otherwise penalized according to state and federal law.

Individuals found guilty of an intentional program violation in TANF and/or Food Stamps are barred from program benefits for twelve (12) months for the first violation, twenty-four (24) months for a second violation and PERMANENTLY for the third violation. The unlawful use of Food Stamps is punishable by a fine up to $250,000, imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. Initials _____ Initials _____
